Mgr. Martin Duda

the member of the Presidium of the Technology Agency of Czech Republic

Martin Duda is professionally engaged in the fields of grant management, technology transfer and support of start-ups in university conditions. He has worked for several years in the position of Executive Manager of the IT4Innovations Ostrava supercomputer project at VŠB – Technical University of Ostrava. Since 2014 he has been in charge of the Innovation Support Centre at this university. From 2003 to 2007, he worked for the Czech Business Representation in Brussels