WEATHER

Average weather in Prague in September is standard for central Europe (middle of spring time). You may experience rain or clear skies.

What to see in Prague

Prague is filled with beauty and can be enjoyed and explored for days, months, or a lifetime. The city has its charm at any time of the year. The average visitor will only have a few days to discover Prague's many faces.

PRAGUE CASTLE

The residence of the Czech President and the largest castle complex in the world. It is also home to some of the Czech Republic's greatest artistic and cultural treasures.

CHARLES BRIDGE

Charles Bridge is a stone Gothic bridge that connects the Old Town and Lesser Town (Malá Strana). It is one of the many monuments that were built during the reign of Charles IV.

ASTRONOMICAL CLOCK

The medieval tower clock is located at the Old Town Square, the southern side of the Old Town Hall Tower. When the clock strikes the hour (from 9.00 a.m. to 11.00 p.m.), the procession of the Twelve Apostles sets in motion.

GREEN PRAGUE

In 2021 Prague ranked as one of the world's greenest cities. It reached top ten in Europe and finished 13th in the world rankings. The green space covers about 56 percent of the total area of the Czech capital.

WALDSTEIN GARDEN

The Waldstein Garden, covering an area of more than 14,000 square metres, is the second largest garden in the centre of Prague.

LETENSKÉ SADY

Letenské sady (Letná Park) is a large public park offering stunning views of the city skyline and a variety of recreational activities.
